Dynatronics Elects Mark A. Crockett to its Board of Directors

Salt Lake City, Utah (July 31, 2008) – Dynatronics Corporation (NASDAQ: DYNT) today announced the election of Mark A. Crockett to its board of directors. Mr. Crockett filled the vacancy created by the recent passing of long-time board member, Dr. E. Keith Hansen.

Mr. Crockett is a principal of NightWatch Capital, a mid-sized value-oriented hedge fund. He is also the director of client services for Harvest Earnings, an operations improvement consulting firm for banks and corporations. Previously, Mr. Crockett served as CEO of Tax One, a chain of tax preparation centers. He also worked with McKinsey & Company and the law firm of Latham & Watkins. Mr. Crockett earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Brigham Young University and a juris doctorate degree from Stanford University.

“Dr. Hansen’s contributions over the past 25 years cannot be overstated,” stated Kelvyn H. Cullimore Jr., chairman and president of Dynatronics. “His perspective and friendship are missed. Nevertheless, we are excited about adding Mr. Crockett to our board. His depth of experience in the capital markets, strategic financial planning, and mergers and acquisitions brings timely expertise to our board. We appreciate his enthusiasm, insights and ideas for improving company performance and look forward to working with him.”
